

Designed for Residents

The Best Practices for Residents (BPR) seminars are designed specifically to meet the ongoing educational needs of medical residents in Arizona. The series is sponsored by the Arizona Medical Educational Consortium (AzMEC) and the Office of Learning and Teaching (OLT) at The University of Arizona College of Medicine—Phoenix.

Register Now!

Best Practices for Residents

2006

Free seminar series designed for medical residents

Join the Conversation on Learning, Teaching and Financial Decision Making

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA[®]
COLLEGE OF MEDICINE - PHOENIX

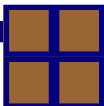

Linda Larson Carr, PhD
Office of Learning and Teaching
University of Arizona College of Medicine—Phoenix
4001 N. Third Street, Suite 130
Phoenix, Arizona 85012-2084

Phone: 602-631-4609
Fax: 602-631-6541

E-mail: phxacad@u.arizona.edu
www.phoenix.arizona.edu/programs/olt/bpr

Leadership & Teaching Series

It is estimated that nearly half of a resident's training is received from fellow house staff. This series provides seminars and resources that are designed to provide the most useful and current information available on how residents can be excellent teachers and develop their leadership potential.

Wednesday
Jan 25 Giving Feedback to Learners in Clinical Settings
Grace Caputo, MD, MPH and Donna Holland, MD

Thursday
Feb 9 Successful Transitioning into Practice
Armaity Austin, MD, MPH and Lilia Parra-Roide, MD

Wednesday
Mar 1 The Resident as Teacher
Ryan Bode, MD, Linda Larson Carr, PhD and Residents

Thursday
Mar 30 How to be an Effective Supervising Resident
Grace Caputo, MD, MPH and Residents

All sessions to be held at the UA College of Medicine—Phoenix at 4001 N. Third Street, Suite 415

Financial Decision Making Series

It is never too early to begin a dialogue with professionals about important financial decisions that await you when you complete your residency education. This series provides helpful tips on how to establish credit, build wealth, negotiate a contract, and develop and manage a medical practice.

Wednesday
Jan 18 Strategies for Increasing Your Credit Worthiness
Charmion Simms, Bank Vice President
Class to be held at Maricopa Integrated Health Systems, Administration Building, Auditorium #1

Wednesday
Feb 15 How to Protect Your Income and Preserve Your Assets
Robert Smith, AEP, ChFC, CLU
Class to be held at Banner Good Samaritan, Lower Level Amphitheatre

Wednesday
Mar 8 Contract Negotiation & Entity Formation: Guidelines and Pitfalls
Andrew Plattner, Esq.
Class to be held at St. Joseph's Hospital Medical Center, Conference Center Room One

Wednesday
Apr 12 Practice Management: Becoming a Business Savvy Doctor
Chris Rainer, MD, MPH
Class to be held at the UA College of Medicine, 4001 N. Third Street, Suite 415

No product or services solicited at these courses. Educational purposes only. Spouses and partners encouraged to attend.

2006

Registration Information

Registration is required!

To register or for more information:

- Call: 602.631.4609
- E-mail: phxacad@u.arizona.edu
- www.phoenix.arizona.edu/programs/OLT/BPR

A dinner buffet from 5:30 pm to 6:00 pm will be provided by El Paso Bar-B-Que. Sessions run from 6:00 pm to 7:30 pm.

